

LAPLAND HOTELS PALLAS

Lapland Hotels Pallas is the very first fell hotel in Finland. It was originally built in 1938 and re-opened after the war in 1948. The cosy hotel provides a weekly programme including downhill skiing and off-piste skiing as well as pancake making. The Owls of Pallas ski school organises ski trips that take visitors outside marked trails to places that few people have ever seen. The night-time is perfect for gathering in the common living area or sitting down in the old hotel library to enjoy books left there by previous visitors.
